

Century Ranks on the Pittsburgh Fast 50 List for the Second Consecutive Year

N. HUNTINGDON, PA, September 2, 2019 – On August 28th at the River’s Casino, Century Support Services, LLC, a leading provider of debt settlement services, was recognized on the Pittsburgh Business Times ‘Fast 50’ as the no.14th fastest growing company on this list. This is the second consecutive year Century ranked on the Fast 50 list.

"Our team has worked diligently to continue to innovate and grow our business, whilst providing excellent customer service for our consumers," stated Dan Frazier, Century's CEO. "Century takes our Core Values to heart by putting people first, focusing on growth and learning and being passionate about our work. We have had over 40 promotions in the past year, more than 15% of our workforce, and take our employees growth and careers seriously. Also, during the past 12 months since receiving this award in 2018, Century has made several moves to enhance our growth into the future. These changes have included adding an internal sales team and reorganizing our affiliate channels, just to name a few. We are poised for continued growth and success for many years to come."

The Fast 50 list ranks Pittsburgh’s 50 fastest-growing private companies. Winners are ranked by the percentage of revenue growth between 2016 and 2018. The companies that made the 2019 list represent many diverse industries, according to Pittsburgh Business Times.

About Century

Century is one of the nation’s largest companies providing debt settlement services to consumers. Century’s mission is to improve people’s financial lives. We do this by delivering a compelling experience through listening to the voice of the customer and our employees. Century has won two consecutive national awards for customer experience excellence and has been recognized from multiple sources for its great employee culture. Century also recently ranked as the 2nd fastest growing company on the 2018 Pittsburgh Business Times Fast 50 list. Century’s corporate headquarters are in North Huntingdon, PA. For more information about Century and the programs offered, visit centuryss.com.

Media and related inquiries can be directed to Stephanie Perine, Director of Marketing sperine@centuryss.com.

##